APROPOS OF COMING POLITICAL ACTIVITIES.

The war has brought the Negro to the place where he is very The sar-has broaded the Negro to be pused where he is very ant to practice what Innoble had in mind when be gave expression to the traism. "You can foolall the people some of the time, but, you cannot fool all the people, all Lilettime." The Negro has been forgiving toward those who have abused him and spitefully used thim, he has practiced the Divine teaching to its fullest so far asthrning the other cheek when smitten on one. It is too much though to expect him to plad this hard road indefinitely, in view of though to expect him to plot this hard road indirintely; in view of the war dry which has reached to the farthest corners of the land to make the world safe for democracy. He has reached the place in his development where has demands to be given himset freatment by those who lay claim to his friendship. "Even a worm will turn when trod upon," and no less can be expected of him Certain things have taken place which the has two weeks which show the undoubted turn the thinking Negro is taking in which show the undoubted turn the thinking Negro is taking in St. Louis. He want a larger voice in civic affairs, the stepping atone is a greater measure of political power, both through ap-pointive and elective positions. Many instances could be cited where he would be usualled in claiming he was betrayed in they house of his frierds. The trend of the times is for fairness; every core though showshiverd and into is objects in the deck. Those who in house of his treetd. The trend of the times is not fairness; every card played above/board and ho jokers in the deck. Those who in the past have successfully played with his credulity had best beware, for heis no longer the helptess child of previous years, but a man grown to normal size, and fully cognizate of his strength. a man grown to normal size, and tutty cognissate, of his strength. He has the man power to closely discriminate between flattesting promiles of, those who would use him for gain and those who actually wish him to advance. No one is more grateful to true and tried friends and none is more presentful toward deceitful enemies hiding in sheep's clothing.

As the coming compaign draws near and the warming up pro-As the configure-supplied daws near and the warming up pro-cess begins to show used, it would be well for the various candi-dates-to guard against making promises indiscriminately— (promises which they have no intention of fulfilling,) because the Negro voter is not the for-de is thought to be and is up to resent such attempted insult to his intelligence.

NEGROES PLACED LAST AS USUAL.

in Monday's issue of one of the dailies there appeared an article headen "Sr. Louis' Quota in Third Loan is $39,107,350." article header St. Louis Quota in Third Loan is Society (SA).

The last paragraph of the article dealing with the festivities connected with the launching of the loan read: "The parade will consist of four divisions. First, military; second, war activities, third, uniformed ranks if fraternal orders fourth, labor, civic, the commercial and social organizations and negroes."

commercial and seems organizations and negrous.

The familiar thing about the arrangements and the press mention of it is the fact the Negries are placed last in such an insignificant notice that the small "in" is used. The Coldred people of St. Louis and the nation are doing their full ablare toward carrying the war to a successful conclusion and would do more if those who mould sentiment affecting the race would be more brotherly in mould sentiment affecting the race would be more brotherly in their consideration of rus and give us encouragement for deed founted worthy in others. We have our women who sid the Red Cross activities: Their place is, with that division; we have a wind the National Council of Defense They should be placed among those classed in the war activities branch. We have our uniformed companies who have supplied men for the National Army; they should be classed above the color line. And so on down he into. The thinking people of this country should cease, no regard color as a badge of manhood, womanhood or relative raisesurement for racial attainments. The amoner we all forget these lettle short which is not fern are cast toward one another the amoner will the strength of the Nation assert itself in its might and strike blook syyling will down Prussianism and make the world. and strike blows which will down Prussianism and make the world le can realize Democratic ideals.
